

Kayleen practices family law, representing clients in domestic relations matters involving divorce, legal separation, child custody, paternity, parenting time disputes, child support, post-secondary education expenses, grandparent visitation actions and adoptions. Kayleen also drafts pre-nuptial and post-nuptial agreements and has experience litigating issues related to such agreements should they arise in divorce proceedings. Kayleen also handles name change and birth certificate correction cases for clients in a variety of situations, including those necessary to obtain REAL ID compliant identification.

Education:

Valparaiso University School of Law (J.D.)

Bradley University (B.S.)

Professional:

Admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts (Northern and Southern Districts of Indiana), all Indiana state courts

Member of LaPorte County Bar Association, Porter County Bar Association and Indiana State Bar Association

President of Porter County Bar Association (2022 Term)

Co-chair of the family law section of the Porter County Bar Association

Co-chair of the Porter County family law local rules committee